

In re Patent Application of
John William Barr
Serial No. 10/629,328
Filed July 29, 2003

REMARKS

Applicant first expresses his appreciation for the Examiner's determination that the claims recite a patentable invention and for the allowance of the application.

As prosecution on the merits is closed, this response is limited to amending claims 1 and 24, addressing the Examiner's concerns regarding the language. One typographical error has been corrected in claim 24, and two minor changes have been made in claim 1 to clarify its language.

Respectfully submitted,
